

SYSTEM SHIELD LABOR CONCESSION PROGRAM

SystemShield™

Labor Concession Program

You bank your reputation on the product you choose to sell and offering a great product alone doesn't always win the job. By offering an added layer of protection provided by the SystemShield labor concession program, you can increase homeowners' confidence in you and their purchase- all while ensuring you can cover your costs in the event of a warranty call.

80%

Of negative calls to our consumer affairs department relate to homeowner's lack of understanding of what their warranty covers

Consumers rate warranties and extended equipment coverage as #1 in driving HVAC Purchases

Offer a better customer experience with industry-leading SystemShield labor coverage, the confidence-boosting assurance you and your customers need.

 SystemShield coverage does not automatically come with your system, but must be purchased for an additional price. Product registration required. For consumers in California, Quebec, and other jurisdictions where registration requirements to effectuate warranties are prohibited by law: (1) the equipment owner will automatically receive the Basic Limited Warranty and the Extended Limited Warranty (if any) (together, the "Limited Warranties") regardless of product registration; and (2) dealer's failure to register equipment shall not diminish the owner's coverage under the Limited Warranties.

 Terms, conditions and exclusions apply. You should carefully review the Limited Warranty and SystemShield's terms and conditions before purchase. These can be found at <https://go.alliedair.net/SystemShieldTerms>
